COUNSELING SERVICE

Regular Counseling service to the female students and faculty in need is being provided consistently. Expert counselors from Bhaskar Medical College will be invited to the college and ask to counsel the students who are in need. The psychological issues such as those related to anxiety, depression, family issues, issues with friends, loneliness and rejection, relationship issues, and others are being addressed in the counseling sessions. Psychological related interactive sessions, webinars, lectures, and group discussions with experts have been organized.
