

plans to expand the involvement of transgender individuals in administrative and welfare roles. Unused women's camps in district centres will be repurposed for SHG training, enabling women to enter larger business ventures. Plans for short-term training for the disabled are also underway.

BJP MP Konda Vishweshwar Reddy on Wednesday flayed the attack on the BJP office by Congress workers and asked while TPCC president Mahesh Kumar Goud condemned the incident why Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy has not acted on it. He said the attack indicates failure of the police machinery. "The Congress leaders only pay lip service to the Constitution by showing the morcha state president and other BJP leaders have been kept under house arrest." Party MP Etala Rajendar also derided the attack, saying it happened despite the Chief Minister holding the home portfolio and having an experienced officer C. V. Anand as the commissioner. The CM should explain if the attack is indicative of the intelligence failure or they allowed it to happen.

daily to make sure the process is accurate. Staff members from district offices are also helping with the survey and their work is being monitored. The scheme has received 10,70,463 applications, out of which 4,25,940 surveys are already done. Officials are using 2,570 logins to speed up the process.
